Dear Parents/Carers,
RE: SATs Week

As most of you will be aware, SATs week is next week. At the bottom of this letter you will find a timetable for the tests they will take each day.

I would like to thank you all for the support you have given in the lead up to these tests and to tell you how proud I am of the whole class for their hard work.

All that is left to do is to make sure that all children get plenty of sleep and have a good breakfast before school to allow them to concentrate to the best of their ability.

The SATs tests are externally marked and we will not receive the results until the end of July.

Above all, I would like all children to approach their SATs in a relaxed and confident manner as they have already made me so proud.
